How do we care?

Jesus left Judea to return to Galilee. He had to go through Samaria on the way.

Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime. Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her,

‘Please give Me a drink.’
He was alone at the time because His disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

The woman was surprised, for Jews refused to have anything to do with Samaritans. She said to Jesus, ‘You are a Jew, and I’m a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?’

Jesus replied, 'People soon become thirsty after drinking this water but the water I give them takes away thirst all together.

It becomes a perpetual spring within them, giving them eternal life.

Water and Thirst

Go get your husband.

Go get your husband.
'I don't have a husband,'
the woman replied.

You're right you don't have a husband for you've had five husbands and you're not even married to the man you're living with now.'

‘Sir,’ the woman said, ‘You must be a prophet.’ So tell me why is it you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship while we Samaritans claim it’s here at Mount Gerizim where our ancestors worshiped?’

I know the Messiah will come-the one who is called Christ.
When He comes, He will explain everything to us.'

And Jesus told her, 'I am the Messiah.'

The woman left her water jar beside the well and went back to the village and told everyone, 'come and meet a man who told me everything I ever did. Can this be the Messiah?'

Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus to eat. ‘No,’ He said, ‘I have food you don’t know about.’ ‘Who brought it to Him?’ the disciples asked each other.

Jesus explained, 'My nourishment comes from doing the will of God... Look around you! Vast fields are ripening all around us and are ready now for the harvest...

The fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester...'

When the Samaritans came out to see Jesus, they begged Him to stay at their village. So He stayed for two days. Long enough for many of them to hear His message and believe.

Then they said to the woman,
'Now we believe because we've heard Him ourselves, not just because of what you told us. He is indeed the Savior of the world.'
