Selectively lazy

Laziness

When comfort wins over effort
and I fail to do the right thing.

I don't have enough time to finish this right now so there's no point in getting started.

It's too nice of a day
to spend time on this.

I'm too tired to go to church; let's catch it online or just go next week.

If I wait long enough
some one else will do it.

Mow the lawn?
That's why we have children.

When comfort wins over effort
and I fail to do the right thing.

Laziness keeps us from living
the fulfilled life that God intends.

Laziness keeps us from living
the fulfilled life that God intends.

Laziness affects our horizontal relationships.

No matter how energetic, ambitious or wise we may be if we truly look into ourselves we will find laziness lurking at some level.

I walked by the field of a lazy person, the vineyard of one lacking sense. I saw that it was overgrown with thorns. It was covered with weeds, and its walls were broken down.

Then, as I looked and thought about it, I learned this lesson:

A little extra sleep, a little more slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—and poverty will pounce on you like a bandit; scarcity will attack you like an armed robber.

Proverbs 24:30-34

Comfort over effort

Poverty

Scarcity

Scarcity

The lack of abundance.

Lacking sense

I walked by the field of a lazy person, the vineyard of one lacking sense.

I just don't care.

I have to care about
God's big picture.

I am a manager of my time,
my talents, my treasures
and my relationship.

Now, a person who is put in charge as a manager must be faithful.

1 Corinthians 4:2

Much is required from those to whom much is given...

Luke 12:48b

I have to care about
the gift of today.

Stop being surprised when discipline and work
are uncomfortable.

Seek to really understand the big picture and
the gift of today.

Set a realistic plan to develop some life enhancing habits.

Start somewhere.

When comfort wins over effort
and I fail to do the right thing.
